Market overview

The year 2006 was challenging for software vendors providing solutions for the retail and logistics sectors. Mergers and acquisitions activity, both among customers as well as among software suppliers, led to delays in decision-making for large IT investments and to permanent changes in ongoing software implementation projects. Aldata, with its 17 per cent of organic growth, was one of the few software vendors that further increased net sales and gained market share in this demanding environment.

The situation stabilized towards the end of the year; retailers have returned to the market and many leading retailers are today planning actions to move their old proprietary IT infrastructure towards standardized software architecture.

The area of retail software is currently developing very rapidly with many new technologies and functionalities requested by customers. On the technology front, the main themes going into 2007 are Linux and SOA architecture. Regarding functionalities, there is a high demand for perpetual inventory management, automatic replenishment, product traceability and global supply chain optimization. Regarding project management and execution, the importance of a fast and cost-efficient implementation methodology and flexibility to meet customer specific demands, is very high.

Aldata, with over 20 years of experience in retail and logistics and global coverage of successful references, is very well prepared to fulfill these customer needs.

In 2006, growth was strong in emerging markets such as Eastern Europe, the Middle East, and Russia. As retailing develops further and retail chains are gaining market share from small independent retailers in China and India, these rapidly growing markets will provide opportunities for suppliers of standardized software solutions.

In the area of logistics software, the market was challenging in 2006. The main growth drivers in 2007 will be new warehouse projects in emerging markets and replacement projects for existing warehouses in Western Europe. Global supply chain optimization will be a key growth factor in the future.

In 2006, Aldata grew faster than most of its competitors and peers. Aldata expects to continue to gain market share in 2007.

October - December 2006 financial performance

Net sales in the fourth quarter were EUR 25.3 million (EUR 21.6 million).

Product sales, which include licenses for standard products, licenses for customer-specific developments and maintenance revenues, accounted for 51% (45%) of the total net sales. Consulting services accounted for 37% (48%), and third party licenses and hardware accounted for 12% (7%).

The Group's gross profit was EUR 19.4 million (EUR 18.2 million), which represents 77% (84%) gross margin.

Operating profit, EBIT, totaled EUR 1.3 million (EUR 2.6 million), which represents a 4.9% operating margin (12.2%). Operating profit excluding expenses for option plans was EUR 1.5 million (EUR 2.9 million). Pre-tax profit was EUR 1.2 million (EUR 2.6 million), net profit was EUR 0.3 million (EUR 1.9 million) and earnings per share, EPS, were 0.005 euros (0.028 euros).

Operating costs in the quarter include EUR 0.6 million non-recurring costs related to the efficiency improvement program, which was launched at the end of 2006. No significant further costs for the program are expected.

Capitalized research and development costs were EUR 0.2 million (EUR 0.1 million). The amortization on capitalized development costs was EUR 0.1 million (EUR 0.0 million).

Taxes were EUR 0.9 million (EUR 0.6 million) and the tax rate was 75% (25%). The tax rate level in the quarter was very high, and measures to bring it down to an acceptable level have been taken. For 2007, Aldata expects a clearly lower tax rate than in 2006.

January – December 2006 financial performance

Aldata's net sales were EUR 88.8 million (EUR 76.0 million), which represents organic growth of 17% over the previous year's net sales. Non-recurring costs related to the program for increasing profitability were EUR 0.6 million and were booked in the fourth quarter.

Product sales, which include licenses for standard products, licenses for customer specific developments and maintenance revenues, accounted for 51% (42%). Consulting services, which include project work, integration and training services, accounted for 40% (51%). Third party licensees and hardware accounted for 9% (7%).

The Group's gross profit was EUR 70.7 million (EUR 63.1 million), which represents an 80% (83%) gross margin.

Operating profit, EBIT, totaled EUR 5.5 million (EUR 5.2 million), which represents a 6.2% (6.9%) operating margin. Pre-tax profit was EUR 5.5 million (EUR 5.5 million), net profit was EUR 2.5 million (EUR 3.4 million) and earnings per share, EPS, were 0.037 euros (0.050 euros).

Research and development costs in the financial year totaled EUR 18.2 million (EUR 15.7 million), of which EUR 0.7 million (EUR 0.6 million), or 3.8% (4.0%), were capitalized. The depreciation on capitalized development costs was EUR 0.2 million (EUR 0.1 million).

Costs related to stock options were EUR 0.9 million (EUR 0.5 million). Taxes for the financial year were EUR 2.9 million (EUR 2.0 million) and tax rate was 53% (36%).

Aldata's reported order backlog includes product and third party product sales, which will be recognized as revenues during the following twelve months. At the end of 2006, Aldata's order backlog was EUR 19.1 million (EUR 20.7 million at the end of 2005 and EUR 19.2 million at the end of Q3 2006).

Business units in January – December 2006

Net sales of Supply Chain Management (SCM) Software business unit grew by 16% to EUR 74.2 million (EUR 64.1 million). The gross profit was EUR 59.4 (EUR 53.6) million and the operating profit, EBIT, was EUR 5.1 (EUR 7.0) million. The positive development of the net sales is attributable to a number of successful Aldata G.O.L.D. implementation projects and to increased sales of new G.O.L.D. modules. The decrease in profitability is mainly a result of significantly increased costs in product development.

Net sales of the In-Store Software business unit increased to EUR 14.6 million (EUR 11.9 million). The gross profit was EUR 11.3 million (EUR 9.6 million) and the operating profit, EBIT, was EUR 2.6 (EUR 0.0) million. The unit has further strengthened its presence in the Nordic area and first international successes with the new G.O.L.D. POS product came when the Group signed new contracts with customers in India, the Middle East, and in the UK. In 2007, there are great expectations for further international expansion of G.O.L.D. POS.

According to IFRS, unallocated expenses are reported separately from segment reporting. In 2006, Aldata Group's unallocated expenses totaled EUR 2.1 million (EUR 1.8 million).

On January 5th 2007, Aldata announced that it will provide the Finnish company Tradeka with a new Linux-based point-of-sales system. The application will be fully in use by the end of the year 2008 in all Euromarket, Siwa, and Valintatalo stores.

On January 31st 2007, Aldata announced an agreement with Elephant Pharm, a one-stop wellness and pharmacy chain in the US. The contract includes the Aldata G.O.L.D. Central and Shop modules.

The Board of Directors' dividend proposal

The Board of Directors will propose to the Annual General Meeting on March 29th 2007 that no dividend shall be distributed.

The Board of Directors will, however, propose that the Annual General Meeting authorize the Board of Directors to decide on the repurchase of the company's own shares using retained distributable assets, so that the maximum number of repurchased shares does not exceed 5 million shares. This corresponds approximately 7% of the company's current registered capital stock and the total voting rights.

The program to improve efficiency and outlook for 2007

The growth of EUR 13 million in net sales in 2006 did not increase operating profits as much as planned, and therefore in the fourth quarter of 2006, the Group launched a program targeted to significantly increase its profitability in 2007. The main actions taken are:

- Restructuring of loss-making operations in Germany and in the UK. Both areas are expected to be profitable in 2007.
- Since the complete re-writing of the main product G.O.L.D. has been finished, Aldata will move from two releases to one new release annually. As a result, the product team has been reorganized, the team has been downsized and part of the team has been transferred to billable services.

- Implementation of a new risk-control process for fixed-price projects.
- On the Group level, a clarification of responsibilities has been made with the goal of improving co-operation and load balance between various areas.

These actions will accomplish higher profitability both in operating profit (EBIT) and in net profit. Special emphasis will be placed on the Group's operating cash-flow. The results of these actions will gradually affect profitability in the first half of 2007, and the full impact will be realized in the second half.

Lower development revenues as a result of the move from two G.O.L.D. releases to one and late start in some new, already signed, projects, will negatively affect first quarter performance. In the first quarter of 2007, revenues are expected to be significantly lower than in the first quarter of 2006 and the result is expected to be negative. However, the planned load for the following quarters is at a good level and results of the actions to improve profitability will significantly improve the operational efficiency. Therefore the Company is confident in expecting for the full year 2007 a continued growth in net sales, a significant increase in operating margin compared to 2006 and a positive operating cash flow.
